MEN OF SULLIVAN COUNTY
WHO SERVED THEIR COUNTRY
DURING CIVIL WAR,
1861 -1865

I acknowledge the valuable assistance of Cary McAnally, Dr. James A. Harper, E. H. Dilley, Dr. A. Cushman, T. K. Cushman, George C. Youngman, Captain Jesse Haddon and many others who were kindly disposed and willing to give information. Many of the names as procured had neither company nor regiment indicated. Very few of those defects have not been corrected and the names verified. Out of chaos I am able to place in permanent form such a list of names of men who should be the most honored among the honorable.

Dr. James R. Hinkle.

Complete Enlistment of Sullivan County Men in War of the Rebellion.

The Union takes great pleasure in presenting to its readers in this issue a list of the men, and the various companies in which they enlisted, from Sullivan County in the War of the Rebellion from 1861 to 1865. The list was compiled by a well known citizen of Sullivan who began the arduous task of securing the information that will prove of great historical interest to the veterans who answered their country's call and to their posterity. There are probably names in the list that should not be recorded and probably many that should be in the list that have been overlooked. Parties having any correction would confer a favor by reporting the same to Dr. J. R. Hinkle, Sullivan, Ind.

Mrs. Elizabeth R. Merrill
 Vigo County Public Library
 232 N. 7th St.
 Terre Haute, Ind. 47801

Dear Mrs. Merrill,

Thank you for the information on the Pippeters. Perhaps I should have told you what I wanted the information for. As your position is concerned with local history, I certainly shall now.

I am writing a history of Eli Lilly's Eighteenth Indiana Battery in the Civil War. The Pippeters, especially William Benson and John are important characters. The first was an officer and at times commanded the battery. John wrote letters to his wife which are at the Vigo County Historical Society and which I quote extensively. I wanted to include a biographical sketch of these men. Three brothers James E., Leonardus Hamlin, and Jason also were in the battery but are not principal characters in the story. A David W., probably a cousin, also was in the battery and became an officer. All I know about him is from the 1860 Census for Sugar Creek Twp.

I did find a biography of John Pippeter in Beckwith's history of the county.

I now have manuscripts - journals, diaries, letters, etc. - of 14 of the 156 original men of the battery, which must be some sort of a record for a unit this size. I found them at the various libraries around the state and also the State Archives and the Archives at Eli Lilly and Company.

(over)

Possibly you have some material, such as a file of Civil War letters, that would add to my story. In the event, that you would have these filed by person rather than by military unit, I'm sending a list of the names of Vigo County men who served.

If you should find something please let me know. I don't need biographical information unless you should find some other gems of manuscript material.

I ran through the Wabash Daily Express for the period when the battery was being recruited and picked up a little information. ~~It~~ Also, the 1860 Census to find the Rippetors.

Very truly yours,

John W. Powell

P.S. Some of the genealogical information you sent may be useful. I'll include an epilogue to tell what happened to some of the men after the war.
